

Holly Law Eve, M.S.

Virginia Department of General Services Deputy Director, Division of Real Estate Services

Holly Law Eve, M.S., has worked with the Division of Real Estate Services since August 2008 and was appointed its director in November 2013. The Division of Real Estate Services manages the Commonwealth's real estate portfolio. Eve is responsible for managing the division's day-to-day operations and assisting state agencies with their real estate needs.

Prior to coming to DGS, Eve was the Real Property Manager for the Department of Game & Inland Fisheries, served as adjunct faculty at Virginia Commonwealth University and worked for more than 20 years in the corporate & commercial real estate finance industry. Eve's experience includes corporate property management; commercial/construction loan origination, administration and servicing; lease and site acquisition negotiation; recovery management and liquidation of non-performing loans and real estate owned assets.

Eve received her Bachelor of Science in Business Management and Finance with a minor in Community Health from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. She also holds a Master of Science in Real Estate Valuation from Virginia Commonwealth University and has earned the Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) designation in the real estate industry. She is a member of the Virginia Commonwealth Real Estate Circle of Excellence and the Richmond Real Estate Group.